

Mrs John Reid

Waranga Chronicle

17 July, 1891

DEATH.

REID. —In loving remembrance of our dear mother, who departed this life at Rushworth On the 9th duly, relict of the late John Reid.

A mother more true never dwelt on this earth.
Nor proved to her children a true mother's worth.
But amidst all our sorrows one hope does remain,
She has gone to her rest and she is free from pain.

The friends of Mrs J. Reid will regret to learn of her death which took place at Moora street on the 9th inst., at the age of 65 years.

The deceased had been a resident of Rushworth for some time, and was well and favorably known.

By many the death of her husband, which took place rather more than seven years ago, will be vividly remembered, it being of a very sudden character, a horse, otherwise quiet, kicking him in the chest and killing him instantly.

The remains of Mrs Reid were interred in the Rushworth Cemetery on Sunday afternoon last, a number of relatives and friends attending the obsequies.
