

Mrs John Rose

Rushworth Chronicle

8 April, 1898

Mr John Rose's many friends will regret to learn that his wife expired after a long illness, borne with the greatest fortitude, on Friday last.

The esteem in which she was held was amply shown by the large concourse of people who followed the remains to their last resting place, the Rushworth cemetery, on Sunday.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr Rose and the bereaved children, by whom the loss of their mother will be severely felt.

The Rev. J. Weir officiated at the grave. Mr Anderson had charge of the funeral arrangements.
