Rushworth Chronicle

DEATH.

CHAMBERLAIN.—On the 16th inst., at Gobarup, Mary Ann Chamberlain, the dearly beloved wife of Charles Chamberlain. Aged 74 years.

Children, cease your weeping; Angels round me smile;
We have only parted for a little while,
In this land of sorrow, with ever varied gloom,
Dew-drops-shall be gathered, lilies shall re-bloom.
Children, I am happy, though 'twas sad to part;
Still my spirit lingers round your aching heart.
And though you cannot see me I will listen to what you say.
And my spirit shall be with you when you think I am far away. ,

—Inserted by her loving husband and family.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Those who have a mother,
Love her while you may,
She cannot always linger,
Too soon she'll pass away.

—Inserted by her loving grandchildren.

It is with regret that we have to record the death of Mrs C. Chamberlain, senior, of Gobarup, at the ripe age of 74 years, the sad event taking place on Friday last.

The deceased with her husband settled at the Gobarup waterholes about 20 years ago, and have continued to reside on their property ever since.

The esteem in which she was held by her neighbours and others was fully exemplified by the large number who followed her remains to the Rushworth cemetery on Sunday.

Mr Gilsenan, in the absence of the Rev. Mr Walker, officiated at the grave. Mr G. Anderson had charge of the funeral arrangements.
