

Mrs Richardson

Rushworth Chronicle

29 July, 1887

On Friday night last Mrs Richardson died at the house of her daughter, Mrs J. Vaughan, Chinaman's Flat.

The deceased was from the year 1853, a resident of Heathcote where she was held in the highest esteem. Fifteen years later she took up her residence in Rushworth, and was deservedly esteemed among us.

The remains were followed, on Sunday, to their last resting place by a very large gathering of friends.
