

Mrs S. J. Hicks.

Murchison Advertiser

11 April, 1919

It came as a rude shock to people of the Rushworth and Carag districts when, on Wednesday morning last, it became known that Mrs S. J. Hicks, of Carag Carag, had passed away suddenly during the night.

Deceased, who had been in indifferent health for some time past, recently sought medical advice in Melbourne, but little hope was held out for her complete recovery. She returned home, and death ensued on the Tuesday evening.

The deceased, who was very highly respected, leaves a husband and grown-up family to mourn their great loss.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Thursday, Rev. Johns officiating at the graveside, and Mr E. F. Anderson having charge of the mortuary arrangements.

A large number of friends accorded the deceased a last tribute of respect by following the coffin to the graveside.
