

Mrs Tuohey

Rushworth Chronicle

6 May, 1896

We regret to have to record the death of Mrs Tuohey, who expired at her residence, Moora road, on Monday.

The deceased was an old resident of Rushworth, she having arrived here with her husband shortly after the collapse of the Spring Creek rush.

The remains were followed to the local cemetery on Tuesday by a large number of sympathisers, the Revs. Ryan and O'Reilly officiating at the grave. Mr Anderson had charge of the funeral obsequies.

Deceased leaves a son and two daughters (grown up) to mourn their loss.
