

Mrs W. B. Heily

Rushworth Chronicle

27 September, 1918

Under circumstances of an exceptionally sad nature Mrs W. B. Heily passed away at her residence, "Lisadurne," Rushworth, on Sunday morning last, another victim to the dreaded white scourge.

Deceased, who was only 31 years of age, was the wife of Mr W. B. Heily and daughter of Mr A. J. Williamson, for many years manager of the Rushworth branch of the bank of Victoria.

By her genial disposition and kind actions she made friends of everybody and enemies of none, so her untimely demise cast a gloom over the whole district.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and his two little children, who have lost a mother's care at a tender age.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, a lengthy procession of mourners following the remains to their resting place, the Rushworth cemetery.

The Presbyterian minister (Mr Campbell) read the funeral service at the graveside. Mr E. F. Anderson had charge of the funeral arrangements.
