Rushworth Chronicle

20 October, 1905

Mrs Ann Steward, another of Rushworth's oldest identities, passed away on Sunday morning last.

Deceased who was 72 years of age, had been a resident of 43 years, and was well and favorably known by all. She had been ailing for the past two years with an incurable complaint and death must have been a happy release to her.

She was the mother of a large family all grown up.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Monday afternoon.
