

Mrs Crilly, buried at Rushworth

Waranga Chronicle

18 November, 1875

During the past week two old residents of this place have passed from amongst us. Mrs. Raven, after a long and painful illness, expired on Thursday evening, and Mrs. Crilly, who has been suffering from cancer in the stomach, died on Thursday morning last. They were both buried in the local cemetery, the latter on Friday, and the former on Sunday.

Mr. Laird, farmer, Wanalta, has also to regret the loss of one of his children, who died on Saturday last.
