

Mrs James Mackie

Rushworth Chronicle

14 January, 1910

Our readers will learn with regret of the demise of Mrs James Mackie, which took place at her late residence, "Strathnairn," Wanalta, on Wednesday night last.

The deceased had been ailing for some considerable time past and her death was not unexpected. She suffered acutely and death must have been a happy release from her sufferings.

Mrs Mackie was an old resident, having taken up her residence at Wanalta with her husband in 1876, in which year she landed in Victoria. She was a very kind old lady and was very highly respected by all who knew her.

A husband, son and daughter are left to mourn her death.

The funeral takes place this (Friday) afternoon, being timed to leave "Strathnairn" at one o'clock, the place of interment being the Rushworth cemetery.
