

Mrs John Ristrom

Rushworth Chronicle

17 August, 1900

DEATH.

RISTROM.—On the 13th August, at her residence, Moora, Mary, the beloved wife of John Ristrom, and daughter of the late James Stewart, Moora, after prolonged and patient suffering.

O death! where is thy sting ?

O grave! where is thy victory ?

—I. Cor., 16, 55.

Mrs J. Ristrom's many friends will regret to learn that she expired at her late residence, Five Mile Creek, after a lingering illness, on Sunday last. The deceased, who was only 36 years of age, was a native of Rushworth.

She leaves a husband and four children to mourn their loss. She was highly respected and the funeral cortege that followed her remains to the Rushworth cemetery on Tuesday last was a lengthy one.

The Rev. J. Weir officiated at the grave. Mr Anderson was the undertaker.

Footnote: Ristrom is the spelling in the original newspaper report. Some members of the Ristrom family adopted the spelling Ristrom.
