

Mrs S. Hilburn

Rushworth Chronicle

20 October, 1905

One of the very oldest residents of the Rushworth district passed away on Sunday morning last in the person of Mrs Hilburn, wife of Mr S. Hilburn.

Deceased, who was 75 years of age, was a resident of 47 years standing. She was a New South Wales native, and was one of the kindest dispositioned women possible. At the time of her death she was not enjoying the best of health, nevertheless, no anxiety was felt, as she did not appear to be really ill.

She was found on Sunday morning lying dead in bed, having passed quietly away during the night.

Deceased leaves a husband and grown up family to mourn their loss.

The remains were interred in the local cemetery on Monday, the Rev. J. R. Walker officiating at the grave.
