

Mrs T. Semmens

Rushworth Chronicle

12 July, 1889

SEMMENS. – On the 10th July, 1889, at Rushworth, Catherine, the beloved wife of Thomas Semmens, of Rushworth. Aged 43 years.

Funeral notice

The friends of Mr Thomas Semmens are notified that the FUNERAL of his late WIFE will leave his residence at a quarter past one today (Friday).

We regret to have to record the demise of an old resident of Rushworth—Mrs. T. Semmens — the sad event happening on Wednesday morning last.

With her father, Mr Conrick, she arrived on the Mclvor goldfields in the early days of those diggings, and in course of time married Mr Semmens, who then lived at Heathcote. They afterwards took up their abode at Rushworth, and have now been in this township for upwards of 25 years.

Mrs Semmens had been a great sufferer from phthisis for some years, and was in excruciating agony just prior to her death, at the comparatively early age of 43 years.

The deceased lady gained the respect and esteem of all with whom she came in contact, and much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and family in their severe loss.

The funeral takes place to-day (Friday).
