

Mrs. W. LeRoy (Eliza Ann)

Rushworth Chronicle

13 January, 1928

MRS. W. LEROY.

We regret to state that Mrs. W. LeRoy, wife of Mr. W. LeRoy, of Rushworth, passed suddenly away at about 9 o'clock yesterday (Thursday) morning. Mrs LeRoy was in her usual state of health when she retired for the night, and her death was quite unexpected. Further reference to her death will be made in our next issue.

Rushworth Chronicle

20 January, 1928

As briefly reported in our last issue, the death occurred suddenly on 12th inst., of Mrs W. LeRoy, of Moora street, Rushworth.

Mrs. LeRoy had not been very well a day or two prior to her death, but nothing serious was anticipated, although she has been suffering from a weak heart for some time. She did not get up to breakfast, but partook of it before she got up. Her daughter Grace had left her for a few moments, and on returning found that she had passed away.

The late Mrs. LeRoy was a daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Shell, of Meredith. She has resided in the district for over 30 years, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy having first resided at Whroo for 10 years, and at Rushworth for 20 years.

She was very much esteemed and general regret and sympathy for those bereaved was expressed in the town.

She leaves her sorrowing husband and a family of four sons and four daughters --- William (Rushworth), George (Rushworth), Charles (Shepparton), Ray (Rushworth), May (Mrs. Lowne, West Brunswick) and Grace and Dorrie (Rushworth).

The funeral took place on Friday last, the remains being interred in the Rushworth cemetery. The funeral cortege was a very lengthy one. The grave service was conducted by the Rev. F. E. Haynes, who, in a brief address, referred to the good qualities of the deceased and the great loss to her husband and family by her death.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. F. Anderson.

LEROY – On the 12th January (suddenly) at Rushworth, Eliza A., dearly loved mother of Cis, and mother-in-law of Jack Jones, loving grandma of Heather and Ronald. Sweet rest.

LEROY – On January 12th, Eliza Ann, loving mother of George, mother-in-law of Dorothy and grandma of Margaret and Keith. Peace, perfect peace.
