

May 1921 OBITUARY. Dec. 1931

NORMA JEAN LAURIE.

After a brief illness the death occurred at Rushworth, on the 14th inst., of Norma Jean, aged 10 years, the daughter of Rose and the late John S. Laurie (late A.I.F.), of "Glenara," Rushworth, and sister of little Jim. The deceased was a grand-daughter of Mrs. S. Laurie, of "Sutton Glen," and of Mr and Mrs G. Hammond, of Phillip street, Rushworth. The burial took place at the Rushworth Cemetery after a service held in the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Mr. J. Forbes, who officiated at the graveside. The service was attended by many relatives and friends, and by the scholars of the Moora Presbyterian Sunday School, who marched at the head of the funeral procession. Much sympathy for the bereaved family was shown in beautiful floral tributes, included in which were wreaths from the class mates at Rushworth State School and from teachers and children of Moora Sunday School.
