

Peter Lawrie

Rushworth Chronicle

19 September, 1941

LAWRIE. -- On the 12th September, at Mooroopna Hospital, passed peacefully away, Peter, the dearly loved husband of Daisy, "Melrose", Rushworth, aged 57.

LAWRIE. -- On the 12th September, at Mooroopna Hospital, Peter, dearly loved son of Peter and Jane, and loving brother of Agnes, William, Christina, and John, aged 57 years.

The death occurred at the Mooroopna Hospital on the 12th last, of Mr Peter Lawrie son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Lawrie of Rushworth.

The deceased was 57 years of age and settled down many years ago at Carag Carag, later moving to Wanalta where he followed farming pursuits. He married Miss Lewis, whose parents are now deceased.

The late Mr. Lawrie retired about 14 years ago. He was an expert trap shooter at one time and won the Golden Valley Championship. He was also a good cricketer and a member of the Wanalta team.

As a hobby he trained sheepdogs very successfully and was never happier than when among his many canine friends

His mother and father both survive him and are aged respectively 92 and 85 years. His sisters, Agnes and Christina, and his brothers, William and John, are well known throughout the district, the latter being on the staff of the National Bank in Melbourne.

We join with his many friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved relatives.