

Peter Petersen

Waranga Chronicle

15 August, 1878

An awfully sudden death occurred at Moora, near Rushworth, on Tuesday. The deceased, Peter Petersen, was employed as a general hand by Mr Matheson, and while taking some water for the horses in the coach that had just pulled up at the door, he suddenly fell down, and was dead in less than two minutes.

Rushworth Cemetery records include a Peter Petersen buried in the Anglican section.
