

Poole: children of Isaac and Sarah Poole
(Clara, Amy, Frederick plus unnamed girl)

Waranga Chronicle

8 February, 1883

Messrs Gilsenan, of Whroo, and I. Poole, of Girgarre East, have had the misfortune to lose an infant child each during the latter portion of last and the beginning of the present week. In the latter case the child succumbed from croup, which is, however, not prevalent in the district.

DEATHS.

POOLE.—On the 1st inst., at Girgarre East, Clara Alice Poole, fifth daughter of Isaac and Sarah Poole; aged, 3 years and 7 months; of croup.

Waranga Chronicle

1 March, 1883

Mr Isaac Poole's friends will regret to learn that he has had the misfortune to lose another of his children. The little one, who was only eighteen months old, expired at her father's residence, Girgarre East, on Friday last.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth Cemetery on Sunday.

Waranga Chronicle      9 March, 1883 (Publication day changed from Thursday to Friday)

DEATH.

POOLE.—At Girgarre East, on 23rd February. Amy Ivory, the beloved and infant daughter of Isaac and Sarah Poole; aged 1 year and 7 months. Jesus said: Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven.

DEATH

POOLE—At Girgarre East, March 23rd, 1883, Frederick George, the dearly beloved and youngest son of Isaac and Sarah Poole, aged 6 years and 3 months.

"Though the darling child is dead,
He to early rest is gone;
He to paradise is fled.
I shall go to him, but he Never shall return to me."

It is with regret that we have to again report the death of another of Mr Isaac Poole's children from croup. This is the third they have lost, we believe, from the same cause during the last two months.
