

Richard Wootton

Murchison Advertiser

31 December, 1903

A lad named Richard Wootton, aged about 14 years, son of the late J. R. Wootton, died at his mother's residence, Forester's Arms hotel, Gunn's Creek, on Tuesday.

The poor young fellow had been ailing for some considerable time and only returned on Saturday last from Melbourne, where he had gone to seek medical advice.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.
