

Son of Mr W. F. McNamara

Murchison Advertiser

17 October, 1902

Great regret was expressed in Rushworth on Saturday morning when it became known that Mr W. F. McNamara's third son, a child four years of age, had succumbed, after a short illness, from blood poisoning.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Sunday afternoon. The following, which included the children belonging to the Roman Catholic Sunday school, at which the deceased was an attendant, was a very large one.

Mr Mullany read the service at the grave. Mr Anderson had charge of the mortuary arrangements.
