

Son of Mr Mackie

Waranga Chronicle

4 September, 1885

J. Sinnett succumbed to an attack of "fog fever" on Monday, and a son of Mr Mackie, of the Nine Mile, departed this life yesterday.

A large number of persons in the district are still suffering from the epidemic that has proved so fatal in many parts of the colony.

A number of male Mackies are shown on the interment register of the Rushworth cemetery.