

Son of Mr McGrillon

Rushworth Chronicle

4 January, 1901

Another death occurred at Rushworth on Tuesday, when Mr McGrillon had the misfortune to lose his youngest child, a boy aged 19 months, the cause being due to diarrhoea, now so prevalent amongst children.

The remains were interred in the local cemetery on Wednesday.

Mr Mullany officiated at the grave. Mr Anderson was the undertaker.