

Sons of Mr and Mrs Thomas Brennan

Rushworth Chronicle

2 July, 1897

Mr and Mrs T. Brennan's many friends will regret to learn that their eldest son expired after a short illness on Monday and was interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Tuesday, the following being a numerous one.

Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family. Mr J. Donley, in the unavoidable absence of Father O'Connell, read the burial service. Mr Medhurst had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Rushworth Chronicle

9 July, 1897

Mr and Mrs Thos. Brennan's many friends will sincerely regret to learn that they have had the misfortune to lose another child from diphtheretic croup.

The poor little fellow, who was two years and six months old, succumbed early on Thursday morning, and the remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery during the afternoon.

Much sympathy is felt for them in their sad bereavement.

The services at the grave were read by Mr Mullany. Mr Medhurst had charge of the funeral arrangements.
