Rushworth Chronicle

30 January, 1891

Thomas Bryant, of the Nine Mile, near Whroo, who was well known in the district a few years ago as a miner, and latterly as a farmer, passed away from this life on the 21st inst., after a long and painful illness, the dreaded miners' complaint being the disease from which he suffered.

He was a man that had formed many friendships during his residence in this quarter, and his death will be a source of regret to a great number of friends and relations.

The Whroo cemetery interment list includes Thomas Bryant, in 1891.
