

Thomas Egan

Rushworth Chronicle

22 September, 1893

Mr Thos. Egan, another old Bendigonian, and an old-time acquaintance of the late Mr Gaynor's, also passed away at the residence of his step-daughter, Mrs McGrillon, Waranga, on Monday night.

The deceased followed the occupation of blacksmith and prospector in the Bendigo district for many years, and while working at the latter occupation was very successful, many good finds falling to his lot.

He arrived in Rushworth some eight years since, and it was not long before he struck a nice patch in Ross' old claim on the Mongolian line.

He leaves a considerable number of relatives in and about Rushworth to mourn their loss.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Wednesday, the Rev. Father O'Connell officiating Mr Anderson had charge of the funeral obsequies.
