Rushworth Chronicle

6 May, 1887

Mr Timothy Taylor, senr., who has resided in Rushworth for the past 27 years, died at his residence about 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, at the age of 57 years.

He has been a great sufferer for the past two years from disease of the lungs, though only strictly confined to his bed for the last fortnight.

The body was followed to the Rushworth Cemetery yesterday afternoon by a large assemblage, headed by the members of the Ancient Order of Foresters, of which lodge deceased was a member, who were anxious to show by their presence the esteem in which he was held.

He leaves a widow and grown up family to mourn their loss.
