

Mr. W. H. McCartney

Rushworth Chronicle

29 June, 1928

A very old resident in the person of Mr. W. H. McCartney passed away suddenly on Monday morning last.

When Mr A. Dowling, who was in the habit of visiting Mr. McCartney almost daily, went to his home on Friday morning he found him lying dead on his bed, he having passed away in the night.

The deceased was 82 years of age, and came to Cooma in his early days, where he spent many years, and later came to reside in Rushworth.

He leaves a family of two sons and two daughters---- (Mrs Dickman, Girgarre), Henry (Ardmona), Bailey (Balldale, N.S.W.), and Bessie (Mrs Lawson, Burra Burra).

His wife predeceased him two years ago, also a daughter Eliza (Mrs Richards, Grong Grong, N.S.W.), about 12 months ago.

The funeral took place on Saturday, the Rev. Faram officiating at the graveside.

[In the Chronicle of the following week, a clarification of his death on 21 June, not 25 June.]
