

Walter King

Rushworth Chronicle

9 June, 1899

DEATHS.

King.—On the 2nd June, at Moora road, Rushworth, Walter, the beloved husband of Jane King. Aged 26 years.

Mr Walter King, who was well known in this and the Costerfield district (his friends will be sorry to learn), expired at his residence, Moora road, on Friday morning after a short illness, leaving a widow and four young children to mourn their loss.

The remains were interred in the Rushworth cemetery on Saturday, the funeral being a large one.

The Rev. J. R. Walker officiated at the grave. Mr Anderson was the undertaker.

Rushworth Chronicle

16 June, 1899

A meeting, to which all sympathisers are invited, will be hold at Mrs Mumford's tomorrow (Saturday) evening, at 7.30 p.m., for the purpose of considering the best means of assisting Mrs King, widow of the late Walter King, who has been left with four little children.

At a meeting of ladies who sympathise with Mrs King in her bereavement held on Monday, it was decided that Mesdames Mumford and Gell should canvass the west half of Rushworth for subscriptions and Mesdames Walker and Anderson, senior, the eastern portion. All those on whom these ladies may not able to call but who are in sympathy with the movement will oblige by forwarding their subscriptions to any of the above-mentioned collectors.