

William Ah Kar

Rushworth Chronicle

7 April, 1916

An old Chinaman named William Ah Kar, for many years a resident of Rushworth, passed away at the Mooroopna Hospital on Sunday morning last, the cause of death being senile decay.

"William," as he was familiarly called, was an alien, but there are few men in the district who were better thought of by those who knew him.

His remains were also brought to Rushworth for interment, the old fellow himself having made that provision prior to his removal to the hospital.
