

William Duncan Stewart

Rushworth Chronicle

13 October, 1911

Our readers will learn with regret of the sad misfortune which has befallen Mr Duncan Stewart, of Carag Carag, in the death of his son, William Duncan, aged 21 years, which sad event occurred on Tuesday morning last.

It appears that some seven years ago deceased suffered a severe attack of bronchitis, which eventually settled on his lungs and he has been a sufferer from lung trouble ever since, his death supervening on a violent attack of the prevailing influenza.

Deceased was a fine young fellow, and general regret is felt at his early demise.

The remains will be interred in the Rushworth cemetery to-day (Friday), the funeral being timed to leave his father's residence at twelve o'clock.
