

William Evans

Rushworth Chronicle

2 January, 1891

On Friday last, William Evans, who has been suffering from consumption for some time succumbed to the fell disease and was buried on the following day.

Deceased belonged to Adelaide, and was a bricklayer by trade, having worked at the railway station for a while, putting up the turn-table.

A William Evans appears in Rushworth cemetery records.