

William Kerr

Rushworth Chronicle

5 March, 1886

DEATH.

Kerr.—On 29th February, at Rushworth, William Kerr. Aged 25 years.—Home papers please copy.

We regret to have to announce the death of Mr W. Kerr, a relative of Messrs D. and W. Cameron, of Rushworth, who recently arrived from Hellenborough (Scotland), on a visit to his friends and for the benefit of his health. The hopes for his recovery, unfortunately, were not realised, and he expired on Sunday last at Mr D. Cameron's residence, for whom the fullest sympathy was shown by the large number of friends who followed the remains to their final resting place.

The coffin was bountifully supplied with wreaths, conspicuous among them being one from Mrs Phillips, got up with her usual taste and care.
