

William Oliver Devance

Rushworth Chronicle

21 November, 1884

Information was received by the Rushworth police on Friday, that a man named Wm Oliver Devance, aged about 60 years, had been found dead in a hut on Mr Drydale's farm, at Gobarup, the same morning.

The body was brought to Rushworth for the purpose of holding an inquiry, but after hearing the facts of the case, Mr Wigg decided to give a certificate of burial without holding an inquiry.
